FOURTEENTH ANNUAL ATLA CONFERENCE HELD IN ST. PAUL

The Fourteenth Annual Conference of the American Theological Library Association was held on the campus of Bethel College and Seminary in St. Paul, Minnesota, on June 8-9, 1960. Mr. David Guston, Librarian at Bethel, was host; and Mrs. Pamela Quiers, President of the ATLA, presided. The Conference program was printed in the previous edition of the Newsletter. At the annual Book Exhibit, arranged again by Mr. Alec R. Allenson, forty-five publishers provided 674 books for display and subsequent sale for the benefit of the organization.

On the second day of the Conference it was announced that Dr. Connolly Gamble, Assistant Librarian and Associate Professor of Bibliography at Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, had been elected Vice-president of the Association for 1960-61. Dr. Gamble is thus President-elect for 1961-62. Elected to terms on the Executive Committee were Miss Elizabeth Balz, Librarian of the Evangelical Lutheran Theological Seminary in Columbus, Ohio, and Mr. James Tanis, Librarian of the Andover-Harvard Theological Library of the Harvard Divinity School in Cambridge, Massachusetts. Dr. Kenneth S. Gapp, Librarian of the Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, New Jersey, and Vice-president of the ATLA in 1959-60, will serve as President of the Association for 1960-61. Mr. Frederick L. Chenery, Librarian of the Episcopal Theological Seminary of the Southwest, Austin, Texas, will continue in his post as Executive Secretary; and Mr. Harold B. Prince, Librarian of the Columbia Theological Seminary, Decatur, Georgia, will continue to serve as Treasurer. At the final session of the Conference, announcement was made that the Fifteenth ATLA Conference will be held at the Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D. C., with Librarian Roland Kircher serving as host.

Meetings of two denominational groups were held in connection with the ATLA Conference. On June 7, the Methodist Librarians' Fellowship, formed earlier this year in a meeting in Nashville, Tennessee, convened for discussion of problems concerning the Methodist seminary libraries. Following the Conference, a Conference on Denominational Lutheran Resources was held at the Northwestern Lutheran Theological Seminary in Minneapolis. This meeting was attended by twenty-seven persons representing the various Lutheran groups who heard addresses by Dr. Raymond P. Morris, Librarian of the Yale Divinity School; Dr. Robert Wiederaenders, Editor of the Microfilm Corpus of American Lutheranism; and Dr. August Suelflow, Director of the Concordia Historical Institute in St. Louis.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORT

The Executive Committee of the American Theological Library Association met in Minneapolis on June 7 and in St. Paul on June 8 and 9. In the following brief resumé, no distinction is made between actions which were reported to the Association in St. Paul and actions which were taken after the last business session of the Conference.

Since, according to the Executive Secretary, the ruling of the Internal Revenue Service that the ATLA is exempt from federal income tax was, in part, based upon the premise that in the event of the dissolution of the ATLA any remaining assets would be distributed to other tax-exempt organizations, the Executive Committee voted to recommend to the Association the following amendment to the Constitution: "AMENDMENT I - In the event of the dissolution of the Association, the assets will be turned over to an organization (or organizations) which is also exempt under section 501(c) (3) of the 1954 Internal Revenue Code." This amendment will have its second required reading at the next Conference in June 1961.

Considerable time was devoted to a discussion of financial arrangements. In former years, the Executive Secretary of the AATS has received and held funds for ATLA purposes, but it is thought that some foundations may in the future prefer to make payments directly to the ATLA. It was therefore voted that the Treasurer be authorized to receive grants of money from foundations and other sources, to appoint a local bank to serve as investment officer, to invest money in U. S. Treasury securities, and to withdraw the invested funds as required for authorized expenditures. It was further voted that the Treasurer be bonded, that he be authorized to deposit surplus monies in a savings account, and that he be allowed to purchase an adding machine for the financial work of the Association.

The Commission on Lilly Endowment Scholarships had been set up in December 1959, with one representative of the AATS and two representatives of the ATLA. Since no mention had been made of the length of the appointment to the Commission because the original grant was for a period of one year, it was voted that the term of one ATLA appointee expire in 1961, and that the term of the other ATLA appointee expire in 1962. It was further voted that a third ATLA appointment would be made to the Commission, and Miss Ruth C. Eisenhart was named to the Commission for a three-year period.

It was voted to appoint Miss Betty Jane Highfield as the ATLA representative on the ALA Council for a three-year term. The Executive Committee also took action to reappoint Dr. Raymond P. Morris as Chairman of the Board of Microtext Reproduction for a three-year term and appointed Miss Helen B. Uhrich for a three-year term on the Board of Periodical Indexing. The Committee acted on applications for membership, received recommendations from the Chairman of the Committee on Cataloguing and Classification regarding the organization of the Committee's work, and conferred with the Chairman of the Board on Periodical Indexing.

In reply to an invitation to submit to the Executive Committee of the AATS a statement about salaries, tenure, and status for seminary librarians, the Committee prepared and approved a statement for transmission to the AATS. This statement, which is signed as a document issued by the Executive Committee, is reprinted in this issue of the Newsletter.

It was suggested that the President name a new or an existing comittee to make further study of salaries, tenure, status, sabbatical leaves and related matters. During the coming year this subject will be in the hands of the Committee on Placement and Personnel, of which Mrs. Pamela Quiers is Chairman.

The invitation of Wesley Theological Seminary, 4400 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C., Mr. Roland Kircher, Librarian, to entertain the Association for their Conference in June 1961, was approved and referred to the Association for their acceptance.

CHICAGO-AREA THEOLOGICAL LIBRARIES PUBLISH UNION LIST OF SERIAL PUBLICATIONS

A 300-page Union List of Serial Publications in Chicago-area Protestant Theological Libraries is now available. This Union List, compiled by the staff of the University of Chicago Divinity and Philosophy Library, under the general editorship of the Reverend John Warwick Montgomery, lists all periodicals currently received and many non-current serials in the libraries of fourteen Protestant theological libraries in Chicago and nearby cities. The participating libraries are: Bethany Biblical Seminary, Chicago; Chicago Lutheran Theological Seminary, Maywood; Chicago Theological Seminary, Chicago; Disciples Divinity House, Chicago; Evangelical Theological Seminary, Naperville; Garrett Biblical Institute, Evanston; McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago; Meadville Theological School, Chicago; Moody Bible Institute, Chicago; North Park Theological Seminary, Chicago; Northern Baptist Theological Seminary, Chicago; Seabury-Western Theological Seminary, Evanston; University of Chicago Divinity School, Chicago; and the Wheaton College Graduate School, Wheaton.

The value of this Union List to non-Chicago-area theological libraries is two-fold: (1) It permits verification of numerous serial titles not included in the national Union List of Serials, for the latter (both in its published second edition, and in its projected third edition) has the stated policy of excluding "publications of religious organizations." (2) It provides further access to serials through interlibrary loan. The Preface contains a tabular summary of interlibrary loan policies and borrowing regulations in the cooperating institutions, and complete institutional addresses, telephone numbers, and schedules of library hours.

The price is $1.00 to members of the American Theological Library Association, and $2.00 to all others, postage paid. Checks should be made payable to: The Librarian, University of Chicago Divinity School. Orders should be directed to: The Librarian, University of Chicago Divinity School, Swift Hall, Chicago 37, Illinois.

ISSUE OF LIBRARY TRENDS TO FEATURE THEOLOGICAL LIBRARIES

The October 1960 issue of Library Trends will be devoted to theological seminary libraries and associated libraries. It will include articles on the following topics: Protestant, Catholic and Jewish seminaries and their libraries; the great missionary research libraries; a seminary library in the education field; the ATLA; various facets of the literature of the theological library; theological classification; and ecumenical work. Many of the writers are members of the ATLA. The issue is under the joint editorship of Mr. Leonard Turner and Dr. Niels E. Sonne. Library Trends may be purchased from the Subscription Department, University of Illinois Press, Urbana, Illinois. Individual issues cost $2.00 and an annual subscription is $5.00.

ATLA STATEMENT ON SALARY AND STATUS OF LIBRARIANS

The following statement concerning the salary and status of librarians in institutions belonging to the American Association of Theological Schools was developed by the Executive Committee of the American Theological Library Association and was read at the biennial meeting of the AATS in Richmond, Virginia, in June. The ATLA Executive Committee feels that it will be of interest to the ATLA membership:

"The Executive Committee of the American Theological Library Association invites the understanding, cooperation, and support of the American Association of Theological Schools in an effort to give renewed attention to questions relating to the salary and status of professional librarians employed by members of that body and to problems involving rights of tenure, leave of absence, and sabbatical leave.

"The present efforts of the American Theological Library Association should be regarded as the beginning of a long-range policy of recruiting and retaining suitable librarians, of furthering their competence by providing leaves of absence and opportunities for study, and of assuring to them adequate salaries, a status appropriate to their contribution to theological education and assurance of rights of tenure. All of these objectives are essential to any realistic effort to recruit and retain in the seminary libraries of the American Theological Library Association the quality of personnel, which will meet the highest standards of educational service.

"In this long-range program, the payment of salaries equal to those in other kinds of libraries and to those members of the teaching staff of the faculty (whichever is higher) will be absolutely essential, for the obvious reason that the better librarians can command such salaries elsewhere and may at any time leave theological librarianship to transfer to other positions.

"These demands are in line with accepted practice in the general library world. According to 'The Library's Pay Plan, A Statement of Principles' adopted by the Council of the American Library Association in 1955: 'In libraries of higher educational institutions, the professional librarians will normally be on the faculty pay plan, with the salary schedules for the various classes of faculty rank adjusted to compensate equitably for such factors as shorter vacations and longer work weeks; where a separate pay plan is used, it will be comparable with that of the faculty and adjusted to compensate equitably for such factors as vacation and work week.'

"It should be stressed that the activity of the American Theological Library Association will be a long-range program, which can become effective only as individual seminaries are willing to promote a normal or superior quality of service. The assistance of the American Association of Theological Schools will be most helpful in promoting understanding of this effort to improve theological education."

BOARD OF MICROTEXT ANNOUNCEMENTS

The members of ATLA will recall that among the titles in the check-lists sent out by the Board of Microtext was Dugdale: Monasticon Anglicanum. From the response to these questionnaires, the Board felt that there was a need for this title to be placed on film in order that it might be made available for those who need it in their work. Plans were made for the microfilming of this title during the month of August.

Information has recently come from the Microcard Foundation that they anticipate placing Monasticon Anglicanum upon microcards. At the time they issued their circular soliciting pre-publication subscriptions, they were unaware that another microtext copy of the work was planned. They list the pre-publication price at $15.00 and the price after publication at $20.00.

The ATLA Board of Microtext would be interested in knowing if, among the members of ATLA, there is a preference for a filmed microtext copy of this title rather than one on microcards. If such a preference seems to be indicated strongly enough and if there seem to be several prospective purchasers of a film among the members of ATLA, the Board would be willing to proceed with the filming of the title and positive copies would be ready for sale within a few weeks. Dr. Raymond P. Morris, Chairman of the Board of Microtext, would appreciate an expression of opinion at an early date from members of the Association concerning this. This may be sent to him at 409 Prospect Street, New Haven 11, Connecticut.

Positive copies of the Methodistica items listed below may now be purchased through the ATLA Board of Microtext. Orders should be sent to Dr. Raymond P. Morris, the Chairman, at the above address. Prices indicated are net. Postage is additional.

Methodistica:

General Conference Journals: 1792-1936. $129.00.
General Conference Journals: 1939-1952. $47.00.
General Minutes of the Annual Conferences of the Methodist Church: 1941-1958. $76.00.
Minutes of Annual Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church: 1773-1940. $365.00.

CHRISTIAN LIBRARIANS OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA HOLD SPRING MEETING

The Christian Librarians of Southern California met on the campus of the Bible Institute of Los Angeles in La Mirada, California, on May 21. The afternoon session consisted of a discussion and workshop on library-faculty cooperation. Following a dinner celebrating the organization's tenth anniversary, Dr. Wilbur M. Smith of Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena spoke on "More Recent Books for Interpreters of the Word of God." The meeting closed with a brief business session at which Miss Clara B. Allen, Librarian of Fuller Theological Seminary was elected president for the coming year and Miss Grace Prentice, Librarian of La Sierra College, Arlington, California, was elected treasurer.

THREE COMMITTEES REQUEST COOPERATION

The Committee on Denominational Resources has not yet received reports from a number of seminary librarians. The Committee requests that those who have not done so execute the forms sent to them last spring and return them promptly to: The Committee on Denominational Resources, American Theological Library Association, General Theological Seminary Library, 175 Ninth Avenue, New York 11, New York.

Dr. Connolly Gamble, Vice-president of the ATLA and Chairman of the Program Committee for the 1961 Conference in Washington, requests that ATLA members submit to him at an early date any ideas concerning persons, topics, or types of presentation which they would like to see incorporated in next year's program. With the unusual opportunities offered by Washington, D. C., the Committee is eager to make the fullest use possible of the resources available there. The Chairman will appreciate suggestions as to which of these resources the members of the Association would like the Program Committee to make use of during the Conference. Dr. Gamble should be addressed: Union Theological Seminary Library, 3401 Brook Road, Richmond 27, Virginia.

The Nominating Committee invites suggestions from the membership as to possible candidates for the elective offices in the Association for 1961-62. The members of the Committee and the addresses at which they may be reached are as follows: Miss Helen B. Uhrich, Chairman, Yale Divinity School Library, 409 Prospect Street, New Haven 11, Connecticut; Miss Esther D. George, United Theological Seminary Library, 1810 Harvard Boulevard, Dayton 6, Ohio; and Dr. George B. Ehlhardt, Theological Seminary Library, University of Dubuque, Dubuque, Iowa.

NEW YORK FIRM TO ISSUE TWO MAJOR REPRINTS

The Johnson Reprint Corporation in New York has announced the early availability of two important reprints for theological libraries:

J. D. Mansi. Sacrorum Conciliorum Nova et Amplissima Collectio, Lyon etc., 1899-1927, 60 volumes. This great set contains the full text of all Church Councils ever held in both East and West, from the first century through 1870 (Greek Councils to 1902). Cloth bound in 60 folio volumes, the reprint is priced at $2700. The first volumes are scheduled for delivery in late 1960; and the entire set will be available by late 1962.

Analecta Hymnica, edited by M. Dreves and C. Blume. Leipzig, 1886-1922, 55 volumes. This monumental collection of medieval Christian hymns is one of the fundamental tools in the study of hymnology. Cloth bound in 55 volumes, the reprint is priced at $960. Single volumes, paper bound, will sell for $15 each. The set will be available in December 1960.

All orders and inquiries should be addressed to the Johnson Reprint Corporation, 111 Fifth Avenue, New York 3, New York.

NEWS OF ATLA MEMBERS

Dr. Francis L. Bouquet, Librarian of the San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo, California, is on a sabbatic leave which will continue until January 1, 1961. He is visiting a number of institutions throughout the country, investigating the application of automation in information retrieval as this science is developing in industry, government, and libraries. Dr. Bouquet will give special attention to electronic and televised transmission of non-book materials.

The Reverend George H. Bricker, Librarian of the Lancaster Theological Seminary in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, was granted the degree of Master of Arts in Library Science last June by the Graduate School of Library Science of the Drexel Institute of Technology in Philadelphia. He was also the recipient of the Drexel Award which is given annually by the Special Libraries Council of Philadelphia and Vicinity for outstanding scholarship in the field of special librarianship.

Mrs. Magdalene Bruland resigned her position as Cataloger at the Luther Theological Seminary in St. Paul, Minnesota, on June 30. Mrs. Bruland and her husband are making their home in a new pastorate at Summit, South Dakota.

The Reverend Francis Daugherty has assumed the position of Cataloger at the Lancaster Theological Seminary in Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Tibor Dobi has joined the staff of the Garrett Biblical Institute Library in Evanston, Illinois, as Cataloger. He was formerly a member of the library staff of the Michigan College of Mining and Technology in Houghton, Michigan.

Mr. Herbert Dorn, Assistant Librarian of the Concordia Theological Seminary in St. Louis, Missouri, resigned his position for health reasons on July 1.

Miss Ruth Dunn will assume the position of Acting Librarian of the University of Chicago Divinity and Philosophy Library on September 1. Miss Dunn holds the degree of Bachelor of Arts from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, and is a candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Divinity at the University of Chicago Divinity School. She has served for four years in the University of Chicago Library system, and during the last year has performed the Assistant Librarian's functions in the Divinity and Philosophy Library.

Mr. Edgar Krentz, Librarian of the Concordia Theological Seminary in St. Louis, Missouri, received the Ph. D. degree in classical philology from Washington University in St. Louis in June.

Dr. Connolly C. Gamble, Jr., Assistant Librarian and Associate Professor of Bibliography at Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Virginia, prepared the annual bibliographical survey article, New Testament Literature, 1959, which appeared in the July 1960 issue of Interpretation (v. 14, no. 3, pp. 333-348).

Mrs. Agnes Kerr of St. Paul, Minnesota, will become Cataloger at the Luther Theological Seminary in St. Paul on September 1.

Miss Harriet Virginia Leonard assumed her duties as Reference Librarian of the Duke University Divinity School, Durham, North Carolina, on July 1, 1960. Miss Leonard, a native of Lexington, North Carolina, received the Bachelor of Arts degree from Catawba College in Salisbury, North Carolina, in 1954, the Bachelor of Divinity degree from the Yale Divinity School in 1958, and the Master of Science in Library Science degree from the University of North Carolina in June 1960. During her last two years at Yale, she was a full-time staff member of the Circulation and Reference Department of the Yale Divinity School Library.

Mr. Ronald Allen Lewis will become Assistant Librarian of the Divinity and Philosophy Library at the University of Chicago on September 1. Mr. Lewis holds the Bachelor of Arts degree from Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois, and will receive the Bachelor of Divinity degree from that institution at its summer commencement. He is also a candidate for the Master of Arts degree at Wheaton. It is his intention to enter the theological librarians' training program in the University of Chicago Graduate Library School in connection with his new appointment.

The Reverend John Warwick Montgomery, effective September 1, 1960, has resigned his position as Librarian of the University of Chicago Divinity School and Instructor in Theological Bibliography on the Federated Theological Faculty, to accept appointment as Associate Professor of History and Acting Chairman of the History Department at Waterloo Lutheran University, Waterloo, Ontario, Canada. The Graduate Library School-Divinity School program in Theological Librarianship at the University of Chicago will, of course, continue, and either Mr. Montgomery or another theological librarian will offer the coordinating unit of the program during the summer of 1961.

Mr. Harold B. Prince, Librarian of Columbia Theological Seminary, Decatur, Georgia, and Treasurer of the ATLA, was graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Divinity by Columbia Seminary in May. He was awarded his degree Magna Cum Laude and also received the Wilde Book Prize for having the highest academic standing in the senior class. On June 26, Mr. Prince was ordained as a minister in the Presbyterian Church in the United States by a commission of the Presbytery of Atlanta.

The Reverend Jules L. Moreau, Librarian of the Seabury-Western Theological Seminary in Evanston, Illinois, translated into English the second edition of Thorlief Borman's Das hebräische Denken im Vergleich mit dem griechischen (Göttingen: Vandenhoeck & Ruprecht, 1954) which the Student Christian Movement Press in London published in June under the title Hebrew Thought Compared with Greek. It is the first volume of a new series which is to be known as The Library of History and Doctrine. The book will also be issued in the United States by the Westminster Press in Philadelphia. A fact of special significance regarding Mr. Moreau's translation is that it precedes the publication of the third German edition, yet it incorporates all of the revisions which will appear in that edition. Hence it is really a new edition.

Mr. Moreau received the Ph. D. degree from Northwestern University in Evanston in June.

The Reverend Hinkley Smartt, Librarian of the Cumberland Presbyterian Theological Seminary in McKenzie, Tennessee, was awarded the Master of Arts degree in Library Science by the George Peabody College for Teachers in Nashville, Tennessee, on June 3. Mr. Smartt has served as Librarian at Cumberland since the fall of 1958.

Mrs. Sally Telford began her duties in July as Periodicals Librarian and secretary to the Librarian in the Andover-Harvard Theological Library of the Harvard Divinity School, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Miss Ann Tingle, Assistant Librarian of the Columbia Theological Seminary, Decatur, Georgia, was married on June 3 to Mr. John A. Hare, a rising Middler at Columbia Seminary. Mrs. Hare will continue in her position in the library.

Mrs. John H. Warnick, Reference Librarian of the Bridwell Library at the Perkins School of Theology, Dallas, Texas, underwent major surgery at Baylor Hospital in Dallas on July 29. She is reported to be recovering nicely.

SECOND VOLUME OF CHRISTIAN PERIODICAL INDEX APPEARS

The second annual volume of the Christian Periodical Index, covering 1959, is now available. This is a subject index to some eighteen periodicals not covered by the Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature or other periodical indexes, but selected for their special interest to evangelical Bible institutes, seminaries, and colleges. It is prepared by members of the Christian Librarians' Fellowship. The new volume is priced at $5.00. Inquiries and orders for this or for the previous volume should be directed to: The Librarian, Buffalo Bible Institute, 910 Union Road, Buffalo 24, New York.

CHRISTIAN LIBRARIANS' FELLOWSHIP MEETS

The Christian Librarians' Fellowship held its fourth annual meeting at Buffalo Bible Institute, Buffalo, New York, June 8-10, with nineteen schools represented. The Christian Librarians' Fellowship, which organized formally last year, now has a membership of nearly sixty librarians of evangelical Christian colleges, Bible colleges and institutes. A quarterly newsletter, The Christian Librarian, and the annual Christian Periodical Index are among its publishing projects. Officers for the coming year are: Chairman, Miss Elizabeth Dinning, Washington Bible College, Washington, D. C.; Assistant Chairman, Miss Dorothy K. Spidell, Nyack Missionary College, Nyack, New York; Secretary, Miss Edith Ehlke, Fort Wayne Bible College, Fort Wayne, Indiana; Treasurer, Mr. Oral Collins, Berkshire Christian College, Lenox, Massachusetts.

MICROCARD FOUNDATION MAY PUBLISH MIGNE'S SERIES GRAECA

The Microcard Foundation is considering publication of a microcard edition of Jacques Paul Migne's Patrologiae Cursus Completus: Series Graeca. It will offer the Series Graeca at a pre-publication price of $560, if twenty subscriptions are received. The price after publication will be $660. If twenty-five subscriptions are received prior to the time of publication, the subscription price will be reduced to $480. In order to facilitate payment the Foundation will allow subscribers to carry a balance over into the next fiscal year. Under such terms the first payment ($280) would be made at the time of delivery; the second payment ($280) would be due early in the next fiscal year.

Patrologiae Cursus Completus: Series Latina, is now available on microcards. It will be available through December 31, 1960, at the subscription price of $715. Orders received after that date will be billed at the list price of $850. Purchasers of the Series Latina may purchase the Series Graeca at the subscription price of $560 up through December 31, 1965. As an aid to purchasers of the Series Latina the first microcard in the set includes: (1) a catalog card; (2) a detailed index reproduced from the Catalog of the Library of the Peabody Institute. The Series Graeca, if published, will include similar information.

AATS ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENTS TO ATLA BODIES

The Executive Committee of the American Association of Theological Schools on June 14 reappointed Professor Carl C. Rasmussen as the AATS representative on the Executive Committee of the ATLA. Professor Rasmussen will also continue to serve as the AATS representative on the Commission on Lilly Endowment Scholarships. Professor Bruce Metzger was reappointed as the AATS representative on the ATLA Board of Periodical Indexing for 1960-62 and Professor Jaroslav Pelikan on the Board of Microtext Reproduction for the biennium 1960-62.

PERIODICALS - BIRTHS AND DEATHS

Volume one of The Annual Journal of the Universalist Historical Society has recently appeared. It is dated 1959. The editor is Robert S. Wolley.

The purposes of the Journal are stated in the introduction to volume one as being: "1) to publish original materials of historical interest to Universalism, 2) to preserve in more permanent form selected materials from the past, 3) to encourage the search for and writing of historical pieces by providing an outlet for such material." The initial volume is eighty-seven pages in length.

Complimentary copies of volume one are available to libraries, and the subscription price is listed at $4.00 for the next two issues. Subscriptions and inquiries should be directed to: Universalist Historical Society, 16 Beacon Street, Boston 8, Massachusetts.

The publishers of Practical Anthropology have asked the Newsletter to bring the existence of this journal to the attention of ATLA members. Now in its seventh year of publication, Practical Anthropology is devoted to the development of more effective world-wide Christianity by the investigation, interpretation, and dissemination of the practical implications of anthropology and other culturally oriented studies. The journal appears six times a year at an annual subscription rate of $2.00. Inquiries and orders should be addressed to Practical Anthropology, Box 307, Tarrytown, New York.

ATLA-AFFILIATED INSTITUTIONS ANNOUNCE CHANGES OF NAME

Potomac University, formerly located in Washington, D. C., is completing the moving of its campus to Berrien Springs, Michigan, and has changed its name to Andrews University. One of the divisions of the University is the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary, of which Mrs. Mary Jane Mitchell is the Librarian.

Temple University in Philadelphia has transferred its philosophy collection from the main University Library to the School of Theology Library. The combined collections have been re-named the Religion and Philosophy Library. The new library serves the University's Department of Philosophy and its Graduate Program in Religion which awards the Master of Sacred Theology and Doctor of Sacred Theology degrees. Mr. Iwan Korowytsky is the Librarian.

The Western Theological Seminary and the Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological Seminary, both located in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, have merged to form the Pittsburgh Theological Seminary located at 616 North Highland Avenue in Pittsburgh. Dr. James S. Irvine is the Librarian.
